Joint Research Master Degree in “Migration Studies: Governance, Policies and Cultures”

16/06/2022

After the incredible success of the first year, the second edition of the Joint Master Degree in “Migration Studies: Governance, Policies and Cultures” will be launched soon. The joint master between the three Tunisian Partner Universities: Tunis El Manar University, Manouba University, and Tunis is MIGRANTS Projects’ main objective.

The Master Degree in Migration Studies is an interdisciplinary two year programme offered in English that will provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the opportunities and challenges represented by international migration. The degree course is offered at the Higher Institute of Human Sciences of Tunis and it has been developed as part of the MIGRANTS Project, in partnership between the Universities of Palermo, Tunis El Manar, La Manouba, Tunis, Granada, Westminster and a network of Associations and NGOs operating in the field of Migration coordinated by COSPE, CLEDU and UNIMED.

Graduates of Migration Studies will be suitable candidates for positions in governmental organisations as policy analysts and policy advisors, in local and international NGOs and research institutes as consultants.
The official call for applications is now open till 7th July, visit the official Migrants Project website (https://bit.ly/ApplyNowMigrationStudies) to know how to apply or visit the Facebook page (https://www.facebook.com/migrantsproject.eu).
